Greetings , Merry Christmas!

Its that time of year again, below zero. Its not even winter yet and we have had nothing but winter driving. December has put us at the Methodist church in Kalispell where we sang for a ladies luncheon. This was truly a hoot for me. Its nice when you get to sing at these type events and its the "other guys" who are the single ones. I took the liberty to mention that there were 2 unwed guys in our group. Sunday morning brought us over into the ranch country of Choteau, MT. 05:00 driving through glacier National Park, 5" of snow, blowing and 4 wheel drive all the way. We had a great morning service in Choteau, made some new friends once again. Mark and Christy felt sorry for us and fed us. I am glad PT is thin, they look at him and think we need food....which certainly works for us. We were truly thankful for the meal. These 2 dates gave us our first opportunity's to pull out some Christmas songs. We have decided that beginning Jan 1, we are going to do one Christmas song for every concert we do, all year long. We don't get to do these enough and we really love the songs. I don't see any need to limit Christmas songs to Christmas time only. After all, we can still sing about the miraculous gift that was given to the world on that day, regardless of the holiday. So there be it, it is now officially documented. You have been forewarned, if you see us in the year 2009, you WILL be hearing a Christmas song.

I'll confess, this Christmas season has had me running more ways than a man should. Its pretty easy for me to get the 'bah humbug' syndrome. It sure disappears when I think of Luke 2:7 "And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn."
 When Jesus was born, there was no room in the Inn, and so Mary and Joseph used a nearby stable for Jesus' birth. With no other cloth to use, Jesus was wrapped in Joseph's "swaddling clothes" - the cloth normally reserved for a person's death. The King of Kings and Lord of Lords came into this world in a lowly manger and was wrapped with burial clothes - in truth, He was born, prepared to die. He was to die for the sins of all mankind....you and I.

What a truly spectacular reason to celebrate!! Knowing that even in birth, He was preparing for death - his ultimate reason for coming to earth....
To save us from our sins.

God bless, Pete
