I had nothing to do with this!

Someone likes playing in leaves.

A VT church building.

Your guess is as good as mine.

Alas, we have returned to our home in the west. What a pleasure it was to make new friends. We had a fine time as we visited upstate NY and Vermont, meeting with Glenda's brother and family.

We then went to Massachusetts to do a few dates and visit with my family, to share the illness we seemed to contact during our travels. I am sure my Mom, Brother and his wife and kids are glad we visited.

Our trip took us to Malone, NY where we got to sing in the coolest school auditorium. Thank you to Joyful Noise, One Voice and Mark and Valerie that joined us, it was indeed a pleasure.

Again, it was joyful to work with WMHR Christian radio in Syracuse NY. Thank you to Wayne, Dan and Linda for helping us for these few evenings.

It was then off to northern VT where we had the pleasure of singing in an 1892 circ. Opera house. Then to middle VT where we got to see magnificent OLD church buildings everywhere. Check out all the photos we took...and we took lots of them! We then ended up in the Boston area. 3 of our dates there were return dates. All in all we had a blessed time, in spite of illness. Everyone was hospitable and enjoyable to be with. We thank you all for allowing us to share with your people the wonderful news of our Savior. How special it is when we can all come under one roof as strangers, yet all be part of His family.

What a great sign outside the Preacher's home.

Restoration in the works.

Another great sight.
