Greetings all and Happy Thanksgiving...albeit a day late. We had a great Thanksgiving here at the hacienda. The kids plus a fiance and a couple friends came home for the day, which was nice....then they left, which was nice, ha! The kids left early this morning for the big shopping event. I never could figure that out, glad I didnt have the urge to go with them. I think the 5am thing would have halted me, even had I wanted to go.

We had a fairly busy month, in the concert world. We had a great time in Great Falls, Ft Shaw and Lakeside. It is always nice to meet new friends and develop relationships.

One part of the month that I was overly impressed with was in Great Falls. We were to sing at 9:30 on Sunday morning. As usual when we have an early date, we try to get in the night before to setup and do soundcheck. The church agreed but told us that on Saturday evening there was another church holding service there, due to their own building being destroyed by fire. There was also to be a spaghetti feed that evening as well, and we were invited. I felt no need to pass that up!

I'll be quite honest, this was like no other church service I had been to. I will however tell you this; these folks had a serious case of wanting to serve the Lord! I still am not sure how to describe the evening but to say it was an incredible blessing to us. The pastor of the church let me explain to the people why we were there as well as asking us to sing a song for them. We did...and we loved doing it. I was quite consumed by the pledge that they had in their bulletin. I quote it to the right here.

As you can see above, we are still looking for a baritone. We are thankful for Dana stepping back in the slot to fill in for a few dates. If you are interested or know someone who might be willing, drop us a note.

Until next time neighbors, have a blessed month and please continue to pray for us that we might be effective witnesses for Jesus Christ!

Pledge

I am part of the fellowship of the unashamed. I have Holy Spirit power. The die has been cast. I have stepped over the line, the decision has been made, I am a disciple of Jesus. I won't look back or let up, slow down, back away or be still. My past is redeemed, my present makes sense, my future is secure. I'm finished and done with low living, sight walking, cheap giving and dwarf goals. I no longer need preeminence, prosperity, position, promotions or popularity. I don't have to be right, recognized, praised, regarded or recorded. I live by faith, walk by patience. My face is set, my gait is fast, my goal is heaven, my road is narrow, my companions few. My guide is reliable, my mission is clear. I cannot be bought, compromised, detoured, hired away, turned back, diluted or delayed. I will not flinch in the face of sacrifice, or hesitate in the presence of the enemy. I will not give up, shut up, let up, until I've stayed up, prayed up. I will give until I drop, preach till all know, and work till He stops me. And when He comes my Banner will be clear!!!
