

Accounted For

January 2010

FELLOWSHIP

I'm "trying" to write a song. I could use some help. It would be based on the ever popular story in MATTHEW 8:23-27, MARK 4:36-41 and then again in LUKE 8:22-25. I have the title, the layout, and I can even hear the tune. Any way, the Lord Jesus and His disciples, and perhaps a few others, are in a ship. A BIG storm comes up and you know the story. Our amazing Lord/Man has taken up residence in exhausting flesh- and is asleep.

It doesn't matter where I am with my Christian brother's and sisters- I'm having Fellowship. To try to make my little note here "clever" let's say we are "fellows in a ship". Our Creator and Lord is with us! We're going the same way, right? There are some pretty nasty waves and storms goin on out there. Our faith is shaken and we are afraid. Holler for help, fellows in this ship! We have a good chance of witnessing a miracle! The Lord Jesus Christ is in the boat with us! Where can you find Him? Resting peacefully, and totally in control. Amen.

Glenda

As it was already said, we have tons of exciting new things starting up in the New Year! Time has been flying! Hang in there and, Lord willing, we'll be seeing you all shortly. Thank you for your continued love and support.

PT

We hope you all had a wonderful Christmas and New Year!

Winter finds us hanging out around home more often than anywhere else. We're this close [holds up fingers] to having all our tracks done for the new album. I tell you, it feels like I am going to be an old man by the time we get this thing done!

I will give you just a little hint: the new album will be a hymn album.

Jan 31st at 6PM will find us at the MGMA Winter concert being held at the Christian Center.

We auditioned a couple prospective baritones this past weekend. We're still sorting out everything. We've had a good time with the process so far. We'll keep you posted.

Pete

This is my verse for the season:

PS 19:14

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.